The Book Of Youtube Channels

>> By Austin Eady <<

For anyone who has wanted more channels, shows and etc on youtube to watch.
Few here are safe for work considering most are horror channels and shows about crimes and paranormal stuff. Beyond that though there's documentary channels, science shows a fair bit of animal stuff and so on…
There's probaly enough variety for anyone to find at least something they like

My original plan was to maybe make and sell a book that's bascially just this info. Something about that though felt scammy/scummy (Like, sort of in the way that reselling is) though so It'll be some free file for anyone to have. Plus a book that's just a list wouldn't be great or seem valuable really to me anyways.

Maybe I'll do some enhanced editon with paragraphs of info and episode suggestions and one day sell that if it seems like it has enough info worth money or what have you
But that's not something for you to worry about really.

Anyways here's that list; nearly every channel I bothered to write down over the last 3 years.

There's no order or hierarchy by the way, it'll be pretty much as when I wrote them.

Sorry for those AI ones that aren't great or the ones that I didn't bother to check are still around. (A lot of good ones aren't)

Some names are totally off too by the way
